

Resume
Alberto Fernández Terricabras

Professor of IESE Business School since 1991. Accounting and Entrepreneurship Departments.

Doctor in Business Administration for Boston University, MBA for IESE and Bachelor in Economic for the European Institute of Law and Economy and the University of Distance Learning (UNED) in Barcelona, Spain.

During six years he was at different management at the IESE MBA Program. Since 2009 he is the Director of Finaves, IESE department in charge of the seed capital funds that invest in projects of IESE students and alumni. Since 2000, Finaves has invested in more than 50 projects.

He teaches different courses (Management of Small and Medium Companies, Analysis of Business Problems, Entrepreneurship. Management Control Financial and Managerial Accounting and Strategy Implementation). He had designed and has been the Academic Director of two focused programs (Strategy implementation and Accounting for non-financial managers) during more than ten years. He also has designed and has been the Academic Director of the Social Entrepreneurship in collaboration with “la Caixa” Foundation during five years. He has designed and manage many other custom programs for companies in different industries.

He has taught in several Business schools in the US (Harvard, Boston University), Latin America (INALDE, Colombia; IAE, Argentina; PAD, Peru; ISE, Brazil; among others), Portugal (AESE) and Spain (European Institute of Law and Economy, Barcelona; San Telmo, Seville).

He has wide experience in strategic consulting and is or has been Board member of companies in different industries such as Healthcare, chemical retail, services, food & beverage and digital advertising. He is the President of a Consortium of Public Hospitals and other health facilities in Catalonia since 2012.