PAUL H. DEMBINSKI is Professor at the University of Fribourg, Switzerland, where he teaches International Competition and Strategy, he also teaches at the Tischner European University in Krakow, Poland.

Expert to international organisation such as UNCTAD, OECD, ILO and others.

His most recent publications related to this field are: Economic and Financial Globalization: What the Numbers Say (United Nations, New-York and Geneva, 2003), Les PME suisses: profiles et défis, (Georg, Genève 2004); Enron and the World of Finance: A case study in ethics (co-editor, Palgrave, London, 2005), and Finance: Servant or Deceiver? (Palgrave Macmillan, 2009)

Prof. Paul H. Dembinski is the initiator and Director of the Foundation of the Observatoire de la Finance. The mission of the Observatoire de la Finance is to promote awareness of ethical concerns in financial activities and the financial sector.

He is also the founder and editor of the quarterly bilingual journal entitled Finance & the Common Good. In parallel, he is partner and co-founder (with Alain Schoenenberger) of Eco'Diagnostic, an independent economic research institute working for both government and private clients in Switzerland and elsewhere.