

The Role of Ethics in Turbulent Times: Rationality and Virtues in Decision-Making

Concurrent session III (Tuesday, June 20, 11:15 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.)

Session 1 (U-101)

- Chair: Giulia Latella
- Margaret Nkem Isebor, Employee Embodiment of Organisational Core Values on Corporate Reputation Enhancement
- Richard Turnbull, The Quakers: pioneers of responsible business and management
- Giulia Latella, How do Social Business Hybrids Diversify? The Role of Organisational Purpose in the Dynamo Case.

Session 2 (U-102)

- Chair: Sébastien Fosse
- Martijn Boersma, Challenging the Symbolic Order of Global Production Networks: A Conceptual Exploration of Worker Identity and Resistance in the Network Society
- Yanina Kowszyk, Social revolution and mining projects: the potential role of cultural power in transforming mining conflict
- Sébastien Fosse, "Ethical embeddedness": When does observed economic inequality warrant the conclusion of injustice?

Session 3 (U-103)

- Chair: Yan Bai
- Santiago Martínez, Towards a better understanding of the role of reason and emotions in ethical decision-making: a more integrative approach
- Pablo Ruiz, How and when CEO servant leaders fuel firm innovation: the role of social capital and absorptive capacity
- Yan Bai, The Edge of Tomorrow: Moral Judgment of (Un)ethical Decisions Made by Humans vs. Artificially Intelligent Robots