

Better together: The power of human connectedness

IESE Business School Insight 161

May 1, 2022

From ICT networks to inclusive people management, a world divided is calling out for more human connectedness. Here's how business leaders can forge the human connections on which our wellbeing depends. Plus: Music industry trends. Encouraging less risky behavior during COVID-19. How alumni are using their connections to mobilize aid for Ukraine. Social impact is baked into RobinGood's business model. Advocating for sustainability in an industry not known for it. Creative ways that the artistic experience is being innovated. When do corporate splits make sense? The accounting challenges of green reporting. Evidence-based strategies to keep work and life in balance. Triple motivation: 3 keys to success.

See table of contents

Array

www.iese.edu/insight