This isn't just another business magazine. It's your annual go-to guide for making sense of the big shifts happening today — with practical, research-backed, inspiring ideas you'll want to read, reflect on and probably forward to your team (or your boss).

Inside, you'll find:

- A fresh take on purpose-driven leadership.
- Real tools you can use — including a diagnostic for navigating identity and change at work.
- Arthur C. Brooks' hacks for finding happiness in life and at work.

- An exclusive interview with the CEO of Thyssenkrupp, on corporate transformation in light of geopolitical shifts.
- The steps we need to take to shape the direction and implementation of AI.
- How companies can react constructively to the U.S.-China trade war by upping their innovation.
- And lessons in leadership and teamwork from Catalonia's tradition of human tower building.

We hope it sparks fresh thinking, stimulating conversations and the kind of leadership the world needs more of right now.

Happy reading!
