

The future of banking

An IESE-Citi initiative releases its first annual report

Report release event in New York

October 16, 2019

7:45 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.

IESE Business School, Citi, and The Centre for Economic Policy Research cordially invite you to the presentation of the first report on the future of banking, a joint IESE–Citi initiative that was launched in October 2018.

This year's report, Sound at last? Assessing a decade of financial regulation, was prepared by four leading international scholars in banking and finance and was published by CEPR in London. The report provides a comprehensive assessment of what has and hasn't worked in recent international banking regulation. Please join us to get the very latest on the banking and finance sectors.

IESE New York campus
165 W 57th Street
New York, NY 10019

Speakers

Prof. JORDI CANALS

IESE Foundation Professor of Corporate Governance
IESE Business School

PACO YBARRA

Chief Executive Officer
Institutional Clients Group, Citi

WILLIAM C. DUDLEY

Former President, Federal Reserve Bank of New York
Senior Research Scholar, Princeton University

Prof. XAVIER VIVES

Abertis Professor of Regulation, Competition and Public Policy, IESE Business School
Centre for Economic Policy Research

Prof. PATRICK BOLTON

Barbara and David Salaznick Professor of Business
Columbia University
Centre for Economic Policy Research

Prof. STEPHEN CECCHETTI

Rosen Family Chair in International Finance
Brandeis International Business School

Prof. JEAN-PIERRE DANTHINE
École Polytechnique Féd. Lausanne
Paris School of Economics President
Centre for Economic Policy Research

GILLIAN TETT
Chair of the editorial board and editor-at-large, US
Financial Times

Program

7:45 AM	Registration and coffee
8:15 AM	Welcome and introduction Jordi Canals Paco Ybarra
8:25 AM	Introductory remarks on the future of banking William Dudley
8:40 AM	Presentation of Sound at last? Assessing a decade of financial regulation Xavier Vives Patrick Bolton Stephen Cecchetti Jean Pierre Danthine
9:20 AM	A dialogue on the future of banking Xavier Vives Patrick Bolton Stephen Cecchetti Jean Pierre Danthine Moderator: Gillian Tett
10:00 AM	Coffee and networking
10:30 AM	Event closes